

Mentoring: Developing Effective Organisational Schemes

Written for 'People in Aid' (www.peopleinaid.org)
by AML Consultancy Ltd.
March 2004

Introduction	1
What is mentoring?	2
Why bother? The benefits of mentoring	5
Who can be a mentor?	7
The cost of mentoring	8
Factors impacting on the success of mentoring	10
Types of mentoring (including international challenges)	12
Evaluating a mentoring scheme	15
Twelve steps to setting up a mentoring scheme	19
Appendices:
• Core skills & behaviours for a successful mentor	21
• A mentoring 'contract' checklist	22
• Mentor qualifications / codes of practice	23
• Useful information sources	26
• Feedback form	28

This booklet is available for purchase from www.peopleinaid.org (see publications and resources page), price £10.00 non-members, £7.50 members.